The Firing on the Allianca Was a Wanton Affront.

In reply to a message asking for his lews on the Allianca affair, sent by C. R. iller, editor of the New York Times, Wm. Whitney, ex-Secretary of the Navy, and the following cable dispatch:

surd rumors and suggestions set in motion surd rumors and suggestions set in motion by the Spanish government and minister to Washington regarding the firing on my ship, and shall pay no more attention to them. The statement that a launch was seen to leave the Allianca before the Spanish gunboat fired on us is a lie, pure and simple. I never had a launch aboard, never expect to have one, and don't know that I want one. I have no doubt that the Spanish officials know what gunboat it was that fired on us and chased us. Their pretense of not knowing is 'rot.'"

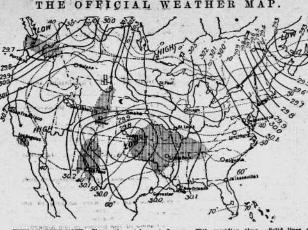

COURT OF CLAIMS DECISIONS. I'wo That Affect the Cherokee Indian and Their Funds.

Two That Affect the Cherokee Indians and Their Funds.

Two important cases have been decided by the Court of Claims.

In the case of the Delawares against the Cherokee nation the original decree declared the Delawares, as adopted citizens, to have equal rights with the native Cherokees in the common property of the nation and to be entitled to their proportionate part of a fund of $900,000 derived from the public lands of the nation. After the case had gone to the Supreme Court, the United States purchased the Cherokee outlet, and the Cherokee government distributed $6, 640,000 of the purchase money among those who were "Cherokees by blood." Congress of the Cherokees of the Cherokee outlet, and the Cherokees shawnees and freedom of the Intion, and to await the event of the pending suits. This case now comes back from the Supreme Court with the former decree affirmed, and the Court of Claims has extended it to the new fund derived from the sale of the outlet, and awarded the complainants, the Delawares, an additional judgment of $188.264 freedmen against the Cherokee nation a decree was entered for the first unanta, as adopted claim of the entitled, under the Cherokee constitution, to share equally in the common property of the nation. As the number of freedmen greatly exceeds that of the Delawares, the judgment in this case is for a very large amount, $863,365. In each case the opinion was by Justice Nott.

electric road will have formal connection with the Metropolitan Southern just to the north of the Chain bridge, and that a considerable amount of commercial matter will be brought into Washington through this end, from the sections of Virginia, Maryland and West Virgitria the Metropolitan Southern is designed to open up and bring into ready communication with Washington and neighboring cities. This will mean much convenience to West End merchants. The steam railroad engineers nightly store their implements, etc., with the residents of Harlem, to the west of Georgeiown. It is reported that the Baitimore and Ohio will look to the construction of warehouses, etc., at the point where the two lines will meet.

Income Tax Instructions.

Collectors of internal revenue have been instructed that "corporations are required of a deputy collector of the district in which their principal office, from which all which their principal omee, from which all of their business is directed, and where their books and records pertaining to such business are kept, is located. Branch houses and subagencies are, therefore, not required to make returns to collectors of that part of the business under their con-trol."

Combinations Not to Be Tolerated. Combinations Not to Be Tolerated.
Assistant Postmaster General Jones has ordered the dismissal of a letter carrier at Youngstown, Ohio. An inspector had made a report on the case, and the carrier was charged with conspiracy in trying to defeat the order of the Postmaster General making regulations preventing overtime charges. It was learned that the Youngstown carrier had taken advantage of leave of absence to go to Canton, and was about to perfect an organization of letter carriers, so that they would stand by each other and prevent the discharger. Mr. Jones says that combinations among employes of this kind will not be tolerated.
